JOEL LOXTON

Film & Television

IN BRIEF

I am passionate about building a career in Film and Television. I hold two master's degrees, have produced many successful short films, and have taught for years at a film school.

My ultimate goal is to work on set, contributing to scripted film and television content in Australia.

In 2021, I left my role in academia to pursue a career in production. My tenure in academia has equipped me with transferable skills that will undoubtedly make me a valuable asset to any production.

I am organized, enthusiastic, dedicated, and eager to learn.
